Parish Youth Development Worker

A small sub group met last Thursday to draft the job advert and the person specification for this exciting and important role.

- For an exciting ministry to develop for our young people
- For the establishment of a great team of paid and lay workers
- For unity across the parish as the paid worker is shared between the four churches

Today is our annual parish-wide service, where all four churches in the parish (St Martin's, Mead Vale, Wick St Lawrence and St Mark's) come together to celebrate Pentecost.

This will be an all age service with a relaxed feel, so please grab a drink and find a table. The children stay with us this morning as we worship together.
