New Team Rector

It is with great pleasure that we can now announce that our new Rector will be the Rev. Julie Fleming who will come to us from St Mary's, Becontree in Chelmsford Diocese where she is also the Area Dean of Barking and Dagenham. Please pray for Julie and her husband Paul as they prepare to move here and her present church as they come to terms with her departure. Please continue to pray for our parish as we prepare to welcome Julie and the rich ministry that she will bring to us. Julie's Installation will be 9 September at 4pm in St Martin's.

Three Peaks

Well, we did it - in 29 hours and 15 minutes!

We started Ben Nevis at 6.40pm on Friday 23rd June and came down at around 12am, then started Scafell around 8am I think and finally started Snowdon at 7pm on Saturday, coming down at midnight. It was pretty hairy at times - coming down in the dark and wet at minus 2 or 3 degrees - but brilliant though.

Thank you very much for all your support. It's been very enjoyable (except the pain and fatigue!) and exciting. We drove a total of 1186 miles shared between four of us. On the team were Gareth Back, Ben Matthews, Jack Davis, Steve Dews, Chris Elms.

Tony Baker, Pete Davis, Sean McReadie and Marc Hemmens were all up for the challenge either as climbers or drivers but sadly had to pull out for various reasons. Tony sorted out the minibus hire and Pete lent us his satnav - thank you to them both!

From a personal point of view, it was a real privilege and honour to take on the challenge with such great people. We worked well as a team and looked out for each other all the way.

We were all tired and aching but it was worth it!

I will put the total raised on the church website when we know it. It currently stands at just over £1200, with other cash donations expected from various sponsorship forms including the school children's three peaks assault course and church sponsor forms.

The minibus hire cost £210 and the diesel costs came in more than expected at £236.81. Any other costs were born by the team. One very generous donor paid for the total costs (£446.81) to allow all other donations to go straight to the charities.
